First round of the 2011 Aust Solo Speedway Champs cancelled

Motorcycling Australia (MA) would like to announce the first round of the 2011 Australian Solo Speedway Championship has been cancelled.

Originally scheduled to take place in Sydney on Wednesday 12 January 2011, the event was relocated to Kurri Kurri earlier this week.

Upon reviewing the decision to relocate the event at short notice, MA and the event organisers have agreed it is in the best interests of the Championship to cancel the round.

Updated supplementary regulations and event information can be found at the www.ma.org.au.

The Championship will run over four rounds, starting in Kurri Kurri on Saturday 15 January 2011.
