

CHRISTMAS COMES EARLY TO DIRT TRACK RIDERS

With just under two-weeks remaining, Dirt Track riders from around the country will celebrate an early Christmas, as the Christmas Dirt Bike Super Prix tears into Tyrepower Sydney Speedway on December 11.

As an early X-Mas present, due to the increasing interest, event organizers will continue to take your entries until 12-noon, Tuesday December 7.

Still giving you plenty of time to get your entry in for this historic and fun-filled event, proudly presented by Motorcycle Accessory Warehouse.

So, what are you waiting for? Don't miss an opportunity to ride against some of the country's best riders, at one of the world's premier motor sports venues, under lights - something never offered to Sydney dirt bike riders!

For those wishing to take part, Supplementary Regulations are now available for all competitors online at www.motorcycling.com.au or sydneyspeedway.com.au

For any other competitor information, you can contact the Race Secretary; Lyndel Butler on 0411 194 315.

Don't forget, the night will not just be a great night out for riders - the atmosphere will be buzzing for spectators as well, with fireworks, prizes, give-aways and maybe even a special appearance by Santa himself.

Racing starts at 6pm and is sure to be another action-packed night for the whole family.

As always, corporate packages and suites will be available on the night. For more information you can contact Tyrepower Sydney Speedway on (02) 9637 0411.
